2 Postdoc researcher positions for women

(for a six year term)

As part of a special measure towards increasing female employment in scientific positions and promoting young researchers, the Faculty of Informatics at the Vienna University of Technology (TU Wien) announces 2 postdoc researcher positions for women. Candidates can apply in any of the Faculty's main research areas: Computer Engineering, Distributed and Parallel Systems, Logic and Computation, Media Informatics and Visual Computing, as well as Business Informatics (www.informatik.tuwien.ac.at/research).

Duties include research in one of the Faculty's main research areas (see above) as well as graduate and undergraduate teaching.

The Vienna University of Technology (TU Wien) is among the most successful technical universities in Europe and it is Austria's largest scientific-technical research and educational institution. The Faculty of Informatics, one of the eight faculties at the Vienna University of Technology (TU Wien), has an excellent reputation and plays an active role in national and international research.

Applicants are expected to fulfil the following requirements:

- PhD or doctoral degree in Computer Science or Business Informatics (The doctoral degree must have been completed no longer than eight years before the date of application. Child care breaks may be taken into account.)
- High-quality research results and publications
- Willingness to contribute to graduate and undergraduate teaching as well as to secure funded research grants and manage scientific research projects

Applications should include:

- A detailed curriculum vitae
- A list of publications
- A letter of motivation
- A research statement (brief summary of past research activities, as well as a convincing outline of planned research activities, and an explanation of their contribution to the scientific profile of the Faculty of Informatics; 5 – 7 pages maximum; incl. abstract)
- Please specify exactly one faculty main research area in which your research activities are based in (<http://www.informatik.tuwien.ac.at/research>)
- Certificates of doctoral and diploma degrees

Postdoctoral assistants are covered by grade B1 of the Austrian Collective Agreement for University Staff and receive a minimum salary of currently EUR 49,644 per year.

Applications should be sent to the Dean of the Faculty of Informatics, Prof. Dr. Gerald Steinhardt, in digital form (a single pdf file to: dekan@informatik.tuwien.ac.at).

Application deadline: August 30, 2015
